

Director, Chief of Police #603023

Northern Arizona University (NAU) seeks a collaborative and engaged leader for the position of Chief of Police. The successful applicant will be an experienced, collaborative, results-oriented leader. The ideal candidate will have experience in all aspects of university policing, professional policing, organizational change, and community policing. Responsibilities of this position include organizing, directing and coordinating the divisions of the department. Leading the department in proactive enforcement and development of programs and strategies to address the very unique issues facing a university community. Working with representatives of federal, state, city, and county criminal justice agencies. Speaking before community organizations, the media, and others on the plans, objectives, policies, programs and problems of the department. And attending conferences, conventions, and other educational and professional meetings to remain aware of modern police methods and administration.

Minimum Qualifications: Applicants will have a graduated from an accredited college or university with a Bachelor's degree and have a minimum of 10 years of progressively responsible law enforcement experience including 5 years of supervisory and/or management experience. The applicant must be Arizona POST certified or have the ability to achieve Arizona certification through the waiver process within six months and must possess, or obtain upon employment an Arizona driver's license. At the time of employment the applicant must reside within a thirty minute response time to the university.

Application Deadline: Open until further notice.

Please see nau.jobs for full job descriptions and details on how to apply online!
NAU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Institution. Women, minorities, veterans and individuals with disabilities are encouraged to apply.